Deputy Director
United States Arms Control and Disarmament Agency
Washington 25, D.C.

Dear Adrian:

Thank you for giving us the opportunity to comment on the five papers which elaborate on the US April 18 Treaty Outline.

Generally speaking, we do not wish as an Agency to take a position on the particular proposals contained in the five papers. Nonetheless, we have a few comments, hereby attached, which I hope you will find useful.

Sincerely yours,

[Redacted Signature]

Senior Intelligence Officer, Arms Control and Disarmament

Remarks:

I have deliberately kept these exchanges of views at the working level so we can speak very freely and informally, but believe you should note line we are taking. I will let you know if any issues involving Agency interests become hot.
